

Infection Prevention

Your Home Oxygen Equipment should only be used by you

Most oxygen machines have filters which should be cleaned once a week.

Clean nasal prongs daily with a damp cloth. Never put them all the way into the water.

Clean masks daily in hot water, rinse and leave to dry.

Masks and nasal prongs must not be shared.

Masks last three months and nasal prongs should be replaced monthly.

Wipe the equipment daily with a damp cloth.

