Dechrau'r daith at ddwy iaith

Gyda dros 65,000 o blant mewn ysgolion cynradd cyfrwng Cymraeg neu ddwyieithog yng Nghymru, pam mae rhieni yn ystyried y Gymraeg yn bwysig i'w plant?

Begin the bilingual journey

With over 65,000 children in Welsh-medium or bilingual primary schools in Wales, why do parents consider the Welsh language important for their children?

Trwy ddewis addysg Gymraeg, byddi di'n rhoi sgil ychwanegol i dy blentyn – y gallu i gyfathrebu mewn dwy iaith, wrth siarad ac wrth ysgrifennu.

By choosing Welsh-medium education, you'll be giving your child an additional life skill – the ability to communicate in two languages, both spoken and written.

Mae arbenigwyr yn amcangyfrif bod dros hanner poblogaeth y byd yn siarad mwy nag un iaith¹ – rho gyfle i dy blentyn wneud hynny hefyd.

Mae dros draean o gyflogwyr yn credu bod sgiliau iaith Gymraeg yn bwysig ar gyfer eu gwasanaeth cwsmer, ac mae dros chwarter cyflogwyr yn credu y byddent yn elwa o gael mwy o sgiliau iaith Gymraeg.²

Experts estimate that more than half the world's population can speak more than one language¹ – give your child the opportunity to do so too.

Just over a third of employers think Welsh language skills are important for their customer service, and over a quarter of employers think they would benefit from more Welsh language skills.²

“Does dim ots os nad oes gair o Gymraeg gan dy blentyn – bydd yn cael ei drochi yn yr iaith ac yn rhugl yn y Gymraeg a'r Saesneg yn fuan.”

“It doesn't matter if your child doesn't speak a word of Welsh at the beginning – they'll be immersed in the language and will soon be fluent in both Welsh and English.”

“Wnes i ddim dechrau dysgu Cymraeg o ddfiri tan o’n i’n oedolyn. O feddwl yn ôl, fedra i ddim deall sut ro’n i’n byw fy mywyd heb y Gymraeg gan fod e wedi dod yn rhan mor bwysig o bwy ydw i a beth rwy’n gwneud erbyn hyn.

Rydw i a fy ngwraig wedi magu ein plant i deimlo’n gwbl gyfforddus i ddefnyddio’r Gymraeg a Saesneg, er mwyn rhoi profiadau a chyfleoedd iddyn nhw ges i ddim tra ro’n i yn blentyn.

Wrth i fi sefydlu fy musnes, ro’n i am sicrhau ein bod ni yn cynnig ein gwasanaethau yn gyfan-gwbl ddwyieithog. Mae hynny wedi profi i fod mor werthfawr i ni fel busnes – mae’n rhywbeth sydd yn ein gwahaniaethu ni o rai o’n cystadleuwyr ac yn syml iawn mae’n ddigon posib na fyddai’r cwmni yn dal i fodoli heblaw ein bod ni wedi cynnig gwasanaeth Cymraeg o’r cychwyn cyntaf.

Dydw i ddim yn gor-ddweud wrth nodi bod y Gymraeg wedi newid fy mywyd i.”

Steve Dimmick

Cyd-sylfaenydd / Co-founder, Doopoll

“I didn’t really start learning Welsh until I was an adult. When I think back I don’t know how I lived my life without it as it’s become such an important part of who I am and what I do.

My wife and I have raised our children so that they feel completely comfortable using Welsh and English, giving them experiences and opportunities I missed out on as a child.

When I set up my business, I wanted to ensure that we offered a fully bilingual service. That’s proved invaluable to us as a business – it’s something that sets us apart from some of our competitors and quite simply the company may well not still be here today unless we’d offered Welsh services from the outset.

I’m not exaggerating when I say that the Welsh language has changed my life.”

STORI JESS • JESS' STORY

Dyma stori un teulu am eu taith nhw tuag at y ddwy iaith.

Here's the story of one family's bilingual journey.

Symudodd Oliver i Geredigion o Tameside gyda'i bartner Jen a'u merch Jess.

"Pan symudon ni i Geredigion, 'doedd yr un ohonon ni'n siarad Cymraeg ond roedd anfon ein merch i'r ysgol leol yn gam naturiol – a Chymraeg yn digwydd bod oedd y brif iaith yno. 'Dyw dysgu dwy iaith erioed wedi drysu Jess. Mae wedi dysgu'n raddol, dan ei phwysau ei hun, gan gopïo plant eraill. Mae bellach yn siarad Cymraeg yn arbennig o dda.

Oliver moved from Tameside to Ceredigion with his partner Jen and daughter Jess.

"When we moved to Ceredigion none of us spoke Welsh but it made sense for our daughter to go to the local school, where Welsh happened to be the main language. Jess never found learning two languages confusing – she just took it in her stride, picking it up gradually and copying other children. She now speaks Welsh extremely well.

"Dyw dysgu dwy iaith erioed wedi drysu Jess."

"Jess never found learning two languages confusing."

Mae adroddiadau ysgol Jess wedi bod yn ardderchog ar draws pob pwnc. 'Dyw dysgu Cymraeg o'r newydd ddim wedi rhwystro'i datblygiad mewn unrhyw ffordd ac mae wedi ymgartrefu'n rhwydd yn yr ysgol.

Os yw Jess yn mynd yn ei blaen i ddysgu iaith arall, dwi'n siwr y bydd hi'n ei chael hi'n haws gan fod ganddi well ddealltwriaeth o ieithoedd a'u cystrawen.

Ry' ni wedi symud i wlad wahanol gyda iaith wahanol. Ry' ni'n dysgu am ddiwylliant Cymru trwy'n plentyn ac mae'r profiad wedi'n helpu ni i deimlo'n rhan o'r gymuned.

Mae fy mhartner Jen bellach yn dysgu Cymraeg, nid yn unig fel ei bod hi'n gallu helpu Jess ond hefyd am fod hynny'n bwysig o ran ei gyrfa hi. Mae hi'n gweithio mewn amgylchedd lle mae hi'n cael cyfle i ddefnyddio'r iaith.

Ry' ni'n dau wrth ein bodd yn clywed Jess yn siarad Cymraeg ac yn defnyddio idiomaau a thafodiaith yr ardal. Mae'n rhoi plaser mawr i ni ac ry' ni'n hynod falch ohoni."

Jess has received very good school reports across the board. It hasn't held her back in any way and she's never had difficulty settling down.

If Jess goes on to learn another language, I'm sure she'd find it easier as she has a better understanding of languages and how they're constructed.

We've moved to a different country with a different language. We're learning more about Welsh culture through our child and it has helped make us feel part of the community.

Jen is now learning Welsh, not only so she can help our daughter, but also because it's important for her career. She works in an environment where she's able to communicate in Welsh.

We love hearing Jess speak Welsh and hearing the dialect she has. It's music to our ears and we're very proud of her."

So what next?

Mae pob math o gwestiynau yn codi wrth wneud penderfyniad o bwys. Dyma ychydig o gyngor gan rai â phrofiad go iawn.

Any big decision prompts questions. Here is some advice from those with real experience.

Dyw 'Nghymraeg

A fydda i'n gallu cefnogi
fy mhlentyn gyda'i waith ysgol?

I can't speak Welsh.
Will I be able to support
my child at school?

“Un peth sy'n poeni nifer o rieni yw bo' ni ddim yn mynd i allu helpu'n plant gyda'u gwaith cartref. Ond gyda chefnogaeth yr ysgol, y Mudiad Meithrin a nifer o wefannau gwahanol, 'dyw hyn ddim wedi bod yn broblem.”

“I think a common concern is that we, as parents, will be unable to help our children with their homework, but with the support of the school, Mudiad Meithrin and lots of different websites this has not been a problem.”

Louise

Mam, Blaenau Gwent /
Mother, Blaenau Gwent

Sut fydd fy mhlentyn
i yn ymdopi os nad ydyn ni'n siarad Cymraeg adref?

How will my child manage if we don't speak
Welsh at home?

“Saesneg yw'r iaith sy'n cael ei siarad yn ein cartref ni ond mae'n wych i glywed ein merched yn troi mor naturiol i siarad Cymraeg gyda'u ffrindiau. Mae gymaint o gyfleoedd iddyn nhw ddefnyddio'u Cymraeg o fewn a thu allan i'r ysgol – dydw i wir ddim yn credu bod hyn wedi bod yn broblem i ni.”

“English is the language we use in our home, but it's fantastic to hear our girls turn so naturally to speak Welsh with their friends. There are so many opportunities for them to use their Welsh both in and outside of school that I really don't feel it's been a problem for us.”

“Mae pob ysgol Gymraeg neu ddwyieithog yn croesawu siaradwyr di-Gymraeg. Mewn rhai ardaloedd bydd dy blentyn yn treulio amser mewn canolfan drochi iaith. Yma, cânt addysg ieithyddol ddwys nes y byddant yn medru siarad, darllen ac ysgrifennu yn y Gymraeg cyn trosglwyddo i ysgol Gymraeg.”

“All Welsh-medium and bilingual schools welcome non-Welsh speakers. In some areas your child could be taught in a language immersion unit. Here, they'll receive focused linguistic education until they are able to speak, read and write in Welsh and transfer to the Welsh school.”

Beth yw'r ffordd orau o
